>> what's the alternative?

Stanley Kubrick, 2008: A Film Odyssey
All 12 of Kubrick's iconic feature films, including The Shining (right), will be screened to mark the 80th anniversary of the director's birth. Two shorts and a documentary will also be screened as part of the celebrations, plus an exhibition of material from the maverick film guru's archive in the foyer.
Barbican, Silk Street, EC2, 020 7638 8891, until next Wed, barbican.org.uk

U2 3D
Missed out on tickets to U2's last concert? Not to worry – this 3D record of their 2006 Vertigo tour gives you a front-row seat. Whistling through such hits as Sunday Bloody Sunday, the Irish group seem close enough to touch as they bring Buenos Aires to the edge of hysteria.
Showing at: BFI IMAX, Cineworld Shaftesbury Avenue and Odeon Whiteleys. Prices vary

Women's Cinema from Tangiers to Tehran
This season encompasses films made by, and about, women between Morocco and Iran. Highlights include the UK premiere of Egyptian comedy-drama Cut & Paste and a preview of Persepolis, adapted from Iranian writer Marjane Satrapi's autobiographical, and graphic, novel.
Various venues, www.tangierstehranfilm.org, until 2 March

